LIBERTY SCHOOL 2005
Cabernet Sauvignon
California, United States

It seems everyone loves cabernet and the Paso Robles-based Hope family have done a terrific job with their delicious, stylish Liberty School brand. The '05 is the product of a longer, cooler growing season whose extra hang-time has resulted in a red wine packed full of peppery, sweet black fruit and soft tannins. It's a real crowd pleaser.

SANTÉ

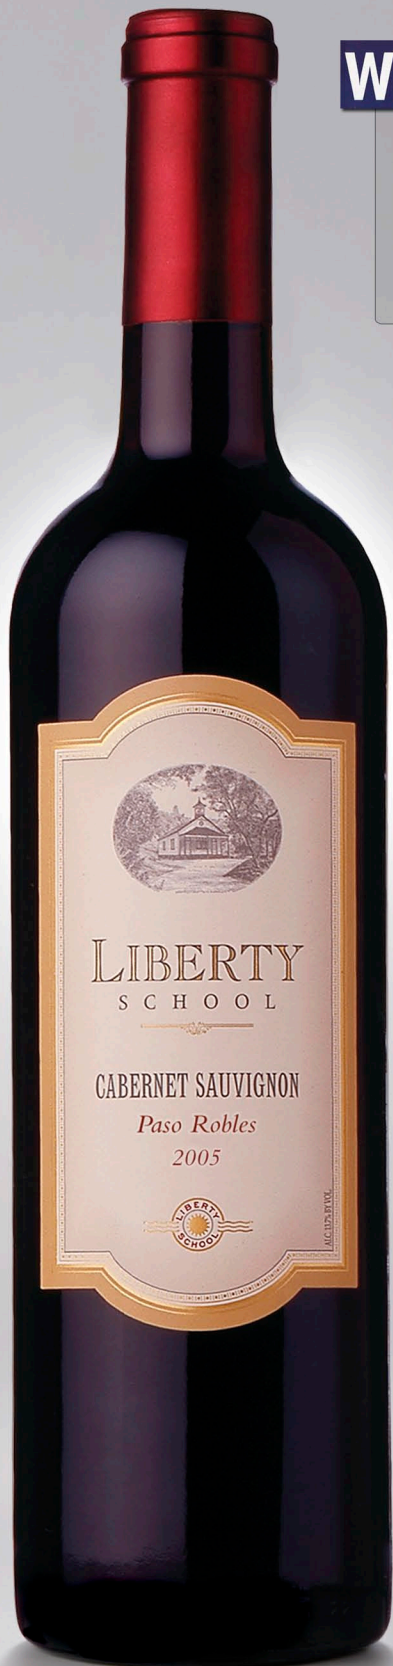

SANTE MAGAZINE, January 2008

Fresh black and red berry nose and bright, ripe red berry flavors. Medium to full bodied with excellent fruit intensity and balance. Easy-drinking and an excellent value. Grilled red meat.

Decanter

DECANTER MAGAZINE, October 2007

2005 Liberty School Cabernet Sauvignon. Full, succulent, very generous, beautiful structure.
